

Rotary Club of Plymouth - Foothills Membership Application

Organized in February 2007, the Rotary Club of Plymouth - Foothills is already the community's most active and well known service organization. Members of the Rotary Club of Plymouth - Foothills volunteer 1,000+ hours of community and international service, annually. In addition to hours, the Rotary Club of Plymouth - Foothills contributes over $15,000 to worthy community and international projects.

Currently, 35 business and community leaders share the fun and fellowship of being Members of the Rotary Club of Plymouth - Foothills while upholding the ideals of humanitarian service, high ethical standards, and the promotion of goodwill.

Approval Process – The Rotary Club of Plymouth - Foothills seeks members of good character with a record of leadership and service to the community. Candidates for membership must exemplify Rotary's motto of "Service above Self". The approval process may take several weeks to accomplish the background check and Board action.
